an international training course on working with groups, individuals and self
Gemmenich, Belgium, April 21 – 27, 2009

Application deadline is 10th of April 2009 to admin@icyeeurope.org. Information about the selection process will be communicate ASAP after the deadline.

Introduction

The work of NGOs dealing with the programme YiA is characterized by many positive and encouraging elements, such as creativity, diversity, grass-root level approach and civic commitment. But we can also observe a set of typical shortcomings, many of which find their cause in poor management of inner- and interpersonal aspects of our work with colleagues, teams, partners and beneficiaries. This training course aims at building up skills, knowledge and attitudes in the areas of leadership, mentorship, participation, communication, group dynamics, team work and coaching. It focuses strongly on the inter and inner-personal aspects of international youth work and volunteerism.

The main topics dealt with are:

- communication
- leadership
- participation and ownership
- group dynamics and working in teams
- mentoring, tutoring, coaching
- Youth in Action and future partnerships

Who can participate?

Participants should come from a YiA programme country, and should have some experience in international volunteering activities. The training course will be held in English.

When and where?

The training will be hosted in Home Frank in GEMMENICH, Belgium. The training will take place from the 2nd to the 9th of April 2009, including arrival and departure.

Further questions

If there are any further questions concerning this training course, please do not hesitate to contact Andrea Rotondo in the office of the ICYE EA.

We hope you will be interested in joining this meeting – other than the great programme and aim of the activity, it will be a lot of fun! It is a great opportunity to meet young people and to get to know potential future partner organizations!

Best wishes from Brussels,

Andrea Rotondo
